Gemini Ascendant

People with Gemini rising tend to be friendly, communicative, flexible, indecisive, unsure, liking to do two or more things at once, witty, clever, very active mentally, high-strung, temperamental, nervous or anxious, talkative, superficial, and always ready for something different.

There may be two distinct sides to you as Gemini represents the Twins. You have a strong need to communicate what you already know and to learn more.

“ You enjoy reading and traveling as they both give plenty of scope for picking up new knowledge. You need variety and can be the jack of all trades and the master of none.

You tend to go wide for breadth, not depth. You may appear confident, but you can lack self-confidence and inner sureness. You love to talk, both with your mouth as well as your hands.

Mercury rules Gemini so Mercury will be important in your chart.

House Profiles

The planets represent energies and cosmic forces that can be utilized in various ways. They are like the actors in a play. Houses represent the different spheres of life where these energies can be and are brought to bear, for better or for worse. If the planets are the actors in a play, then the houses represent the various settings in which the actors play out their roles (signs).

The 12 Houses of astrology are symbolic of all the departments that make up human life. The planets and zodiac signs will manifest themselves most strongly in the sphere of life represented by the House in which they fall on your chart. Remember, the houses are not "energies" like the elements or planets, nor do they color the expression of energies like the zodiac signs do. The houses are WHERE these energies are most likely to manifest. The houses are the fields of experience, not the experience themselves.

For you, the world is a place to travel, see, and experience in all its variety. Your manner of personal expression through thought, writing, and oratory could bring recognition in any of those fields. Others are apt to perceive you in a physical sense as alert, aware, quick on your feet, and on the move most of the time. You have an intellectual appeal to many people that would have them seeking you out for information or advice. Because of your quick wit, and active schedule, you have a tendency to take on projects before completing those already started. You may be fortunate in a business involving short journeys, or establishing several business locations not located too far apart, yet connected by highway, and accessible to the public at large.

Second House Cusp

You can be very imaginative in ways that will attract money to you, and in maintaining a tenacious grip in preventing it from flowing away for unimportant reasons. Although you tend to be conservative about finances, your sensitive nature may allow for contributions to charity, or for the welfare of others. You may also be prone to spend for things that make you comfortable, or bring pleasure, or enhance your safety or security. Investments in agriculture, property, insurance, and commodities based on liquids such as water-rights or drilling, and soft drinks would be beneficial to your financial base.

Writing plays or novels in which you could spin tales would undoubtedly be pleasing to you. Along more mundane lines, you would be inclined to learn or study in those areas that are the most interesting to you, and even this is subject to a degree of changeability. You tend to enjoy traveling whether for business or pleasure, and short or medium trips are most likely, although you would grab any opportunity to visit faraway places. See that you make arrangements for your comfort, as you are not usually interested in "roughing it," unless for special occasions. Home and neighborhood have an important place in your life, and harmony and peace with family and friends is always considered. You should handle your own correspondence as it tends to be personal and private.

While you have a wide range of friends, you're not inclined to follow the party crowd. You can have a good time without letting go, and proper conduct is expected from everyone. Courtship is something you probably have a preconceived idea about, and you desire an orderly, sequence of events to unravel in their due time. There may be few children from marriage, but many factors will determine the exact number. Although you may not be artistically inclined, you possess a shrewd eye for form and design. Your opinion is of great value to those who appreciate your fine tastes. You are more inclined to invest rather than speculate, and investments in food, catering, or in the health fields would benefit most.

There is a tendency to be excessive, or over-do a good thing as with food or drink. It is best to lean toward the conservative side of self-satisfaction when the temptation arises. Since you usually enjoy close contact with friends and lovers, you should avoid areas of known contagious infections, and stay away from those with obvious symptoms of illness. You can be a very dedicated worker, and strive to do the best job possible. Long, hard hours best suits you as a self-employed person, and you expect your employees or partners to give the same. Marriage is possible to someone with a love for the outdoors, or an interest in sporting activities. There is a good likelihood of meeting the right person through travel, or in foreign lands. Relationships that are not nurtured or continually worked on have a possibility of drifting and eventually falling apart. You should receive what is rightfully yours, even though it may come later in life, or not prove as beneficial as expected. Land or real estate, and stocks and bonds are assets likely passed on to you as a rightful heir. Under certain circumstances the possibility exists that a debt might be inherited rather than someone's assets. Attempts to ascertain the exact manner of death is usually not too fruitful an undertaking, although certain characteristics do prevail. Bone disease or problems with the joints, particularly the knees, may be significant. Lethargy or lack of vitality might sap the strength needed to maintain resistance against viral attacks or disease, notably in old age. In general the sign indicates longevity, and a strong grip on life to the very end.

The emphasis on long distance travel is in carrying out the affairs of a business, or in meeting the obligations imposed by a business or in other related matters. The same can be said for affairs conducted in foreign lands, or with foreign governments, especially where publicity or prestige are involved. Long journeys taken for personal reasons, such as a vacation, are apt to be met with some delay, or scheduling problems. It is important that arrangements be made to secure personal comfort prior to departure. All forms of travel can be utilized; air, sea, rail, and road, although the most satisfying will be by that which carries one over the land. Religious matters may not take on great importance, and in some cases skepticism may predominate. Where religion is a major factor, then it is apt to be with the orthodox belief systems.

Although you are likely to establish life long companions, there may be many that will come into your life, and then go out of it; some will make a lasting impression that could be missed over the years. Because of your sympathetic nature, it would be wise to use discrimination in choosing whom to make your friends, since they may ask you to make sacrifices on their part, and in your effort to be helpful, you might be taken advantage of. Where feelings of enmity or resentment might occur in the life, it would be best to avoid legal entanglements, as this is one way someone not happy with you could take action. Should you experience financial success, there is apt to be someone that is annoyed by this situation, and attempt to undermine your position. Even in the area of romance, where affection is involved, an element of jealousy could arise. Should a clandestine affair draw you into a perplexing predicament, it could spill over into a difficult situation where anger flares, and retribution become something you have to deal with. Along other lines, there is an inclination to seek seclusion or solitude. If you become religiously inspired, you could seek a monastic order, or feel compelled to make sacrifices for your beliefs.
