What is Synastry

Astrology is the study of the effects of planetary forces upon man. It is not fortune telling. It is one of the best methods for man to learn about who he is, where he came from and where he is going. Astrology reveals CHARACTER and character is destiny. If man can change his character, then man will have changed his destiny. The main uses of astrology are diagnosis of health and sickness, character analysis, vocational guidance, analysis of children's horoscopes so as to give parents a better idea as to how best to raise their children, and analysis of the compatibilities between people.

Astrology does not show anything but tendencies. A man can rule his stars by exerting his will. If a man decides to flow with the tide of life, then the tendencies indicated in the birth chart will at some time have their effect. The one thing a birth chart does not show is the WILL of the individual and how he may exert it. The matter of exercising free will is left entirely up to the individual. The wise man rules his stars, the fool is ruled by them. Astrology forewarns and being forewarned, a man is thus forearmed to better cope with the struggles of life.

Synastry House Report

Jason's Sun In Jessica 4th House

Excellent, this is a powerful and emotionally gratifying connection. There is a strong link between you both – either in this life or karmically. Your meeting may be seen by you as meat to be. You may have a home town or family connection and it is very likely that you will share a strong bond in terms of a shared past or similar upbringing.

There is a strong feeling of shared identity. You have very strong protective instincts when it comes to your partner and you arouse the father/mother instinct in them. With this aspect you both have each other's back and you can operate as a very powerful, robust unit. Often there is a sense of, 'You and me against the world'.

You have a significant effect on your partner and can really reach them on a profound level. Your partner is very sensitive to your words and actions and so you have to be self-aware as he/she takes you very seriously and will take your deeds to heart – maybe more so than should be.

Your partner will perceive this bond as strong and they will trust in you; you may become somewhat of a rescuer as this partner may rely on you more than you may feel comfortable with, especially emotionally. Indeed, it is possible that you will both parent each other to an extent as this is a nurturing combination and yet you may be the leader, the one with whom the buck ultimately stops.

The 4th house placement of the sun brings an intimate connection which is very personal and dear to you both, but it can also bring out an irrational side to you both which makes life quite changeable and you do not always make good decisions together.

This is a very good combination for couples who meet much later in life.

You may both do well in terms of property investments.

Jason's Moon In Jessica 1st House

You have a very soothing effect on your partner and they can sense your care and concern; right from the get go they found you sympathetic and amenable. Your warmth is sensed by your partner, who gets you on an emotional level. There is an immediate innate understanding of each other and you are able to feel comfortable together.

Being together feels natural and there is a lack of pretence; you enjoy each other's company and there is a mutual feeling of being accepted for what you are.

There is something about the way your partner behaves and approaches life that gives you confidence and makes you feel secure; they have attributes that matter to you and create a feeling of emotional wellbeing within you. Emotionally you click and you often have similar likes and dislike as well as similar gut level responses to other people.

You get an immediate sense that this person has potential. You are attracted to them, not so much physically, but there is an emotional attraction based on a sense of mutual understanding. The attraction is heightened where you are the man. Your partner feels supported by you and a relationship with a great deal of compassion and innate appreciation is indicated.

You are generally in sync and your moods tend to harmonise. Your partner is very perceptive when it comes to your moods and can pick up when you need extra support and care or maybe they just have the right words needed at the right time. You tend not to have to spell everything out to each other – you just know.

Your partner may seek to manipulate you via flattery.

Your partner may become a little too dependent on you for mothering and co-dependency can develop. This is however a great placement often found in married couples.

Jason's Mars In Jessica 3rd House

This placement brings lively communication with frequent bickering. Obsession with minor problems and trivialities can mar the otherwise stimulating conversation.

As with all third house placements, communication is terrific and the relationship is mentally stimulating. You may in the initial phases of love travel frequently to see each other.

You may rush your partner and they may always feel under pressure with you. You bring a hectic dynamic to their life which is initially exciting, but can later be emotionally draining.

They find you exciting and are curious about your lifestyle, your motivations and your projects. This partner will take an intense interest in you sexually and personally. They love your approach to life and generally agree with your decisions.

You help each other solve problems and you do not let grass grow under your feet, it is a very active placement with much travel. You stimulate each other mentally and love to debate.

Over time you may dominate conversations and butt in. You could put words in your partner's mouth and stifle them intellectually. Your partner may just agree with you, for the sake of it, and express their own opinions elsewhere. You may not know what they are really thinking anymore and they tell you what you want to hear.

In some cases your partner was always a dark horse who let you do the talking.

This works best where the woman is the Mars person.

Jason's Mercury In Jessica 4th House

You may be attracted to your partner as you appreciate their family values and have a similar interest in home making and family life. This bodes well for having children and for the education and intellectual development of your children. You may start talking about starting a family from early on in the relationship. You may both have an interest in history or genealogy. There are shared experiences in both your childhoods.

You may well bring some upheaval and change into your partner's life and they may not appreciate some of your domestic habits and indeed you may find some of the things your partner gets up to in the home i.e. DIY annoying.

You have the desire to reform your partner; you seek to bring some logic to aspects of his/her life where you feel he/she is irrational or too obsessive. You are a breath of fresh air in many ways and yet this can also jar with your partner. You may clash with one or both of your partner's parents. You tend to understand your partner very well and that is why you can see where they need to make changes even if they cannot see it themselves.

Your partner is very comfortable with you, and the way you express yourself and communicate make him feel comfortable. You have a familiar air about you that may make your partner feel that they have known you for ages.

This can be a cathartic relationship where you both discuss things which have been buried for a long time and need airing and understanding.

Jason's Jupiter In Jessica 9th House

This placement brings expansion, optimism and success. Whatever you are doing, it gets bigger and better when you team up with this partner. In some cases, this combination encourages waste and excess, you may both never know when enough is enough.

You may meet while traveling and your life together may be one long journey, where you never settle down for long. 'A rolling stone gathers no moss' is a key saying for this pairing. There is a great need to keep striving and that is why this combo breeds success. There can however, be an obsessive sense that the grass is greener on the other side and this can lead to a restlessness which ends up destroying your emotional life. You both need to put down roots and focus on what really matters, there is a time to seek, but endless seeking indicates neither of you understand what really counts.

You guys may meet in the course of study, you may help your partner with their studies or be their teacher. Your partner may feel somewhat intellectually inferior to you and you may exhibit some intellectual snobbery.

You may have similar views in terms of moral and ethical issues and you could enjoy worship together.

You stimulate each other's interest in social, political and community matters and you tend to be an outward looking couple engaged in life.

There is much to be learned from each other and life will not be stagnant, it will be dynamic and will facilitate personal development.

Jason's Venus In Jessica 3rd House

This combination us all about fun. You may meet online or on social media and texting or emailing each other may be key to the start of the relationship.

This love match gets off the ground fast and moves quickly. You enjoy taking trips and attending events together and dating is filled with variety and fun.

You enjoy each other's sense of humor and there are many laughs and jokes shared. Your partner brings out the playful side of you and communication is terrific. You can chat all day and you are comfortable together. Your partner finds you intelligent and witty, they like what you talk about and find you fascinating. Being with your partner gives you more social and intellectual confidence and you begin to make more of your communication skills.

While fun and flirtation are abundant, there is something superficial about this combination and one or both of you may not be taking it seriously. It could be a fling or an affair unless other aspects are strong.

There can be arguments which are petty and you may not really experience passion physically. This match needs constant change, variety and refreshment which can become exhausting.

One of you, more likely you may shy away from commitments when it comes down to the wire. Promises may not be kept and you could begin to bicker. Enjoy this while it lasts and you will part as good friends.

Jason's Saturn In Jessica 3rd House

This brings some issues in terms of how you communicate with each other or as a couple. You may cut in, finish your partner's sentences or reveal the punch line of their jokes. You could dominate conversations, making them withdraw, or perhaps you are naturally a quite person, who does not find chatting easy and so you encourage your partner to be more reticent verbally.

There could even be a language barrier that makes the free flow of communication difficult. Bottom line is that your partner does not communicate as effectively with you as they do with other people and this may well be baffling and frustrating for you.

The pace of your lives and routines may also interfere with communicating – one of you may work shifts meaning you never get that much time together.

You tend to be quite serious together and will have shorter, but more meaningful and direct conversations. You may be the one to help your partner learn a skill or technique or you may help them improve their reading or writing. Your partner may feel intellectually inferior to you – in some cases you are the brainer one, but in some cases you are both intelligent, but you are merely the more effective communicator who will tend to dominate this sphere. Over time your partner may get to rely too much on you to deal with correspondence and daily communication requirements.

You may both be either openly or secretly critical of the other and this subtle rather passive aggressive discontent can pervade the relationship and stifle meaningful exchanges.

You have to be careful not to be too dismissive of your partner and cause them to clam up by not fully acknowledging the relevance or importance of what they have to say. The key for you is to be more patient, a better listener and to be more tolerant of your partner's views and unique communication style.

Jason's Uranus In Jessica 2nd House

As Uranus moves rather slowly through the zodiac and spends about 7 years in each sign, if you date people of a similar age they may have Uranus in only one of two of your houses and visa versa.

This indicates that you feel on a par with your partner in terms of financial or personal power in the relationship. You may be highly attracted to your partner physically and you have high hopes for the sexual side of your relationship. Often with this placement you feel a kinship with your partner and are partially attracted to them as you believe they reflect your values, however over time you may realise that things are not quite as you first imagined and perhaps you are further apart on key issues that you feel comfortable with. In some cases this indicates that you get together for practical reasons or due to an arranged marriage, but end up being physically attracted to each other. The sexual attraction is often one way in the beginning but that tends to even out as the relationship progresses.

There is great potential in his relationship as it encourages personal growth and adaptability in you both, however you will both have to meet each other half way when it comes to key decisions especially about money as you can have radically different priorities in this respect.

Uranus is the area of life where you really notice things about your partner – you will tend to notice the things which are special about your partner or the hidden talents they neglect to develop and you may encourage them to pay more attention to these talents. You are also more aware of their relationship with money and what their priorities are and you could find their attitude to money, be it mean, profligate or passive, annoys you or becomes a big barrier to the relationship progressing.

You may try and impose your expectations about money onto your partner, encouraging them to earn more and be more ambitious or encouraging them to be more generous – either way you have a big impact on how they view their finances.

You tend to hone in on your partner's weak points and you know where they feel insecure – you may have more insight into their strengths and weaknesses than they do.

It may be arguments over money that are the nail in the coffin of this relationship unless one of you compromises their values – probably you.

Jason's Neptune In Jessica 2nd House

As Neptune moves rather slowly through the zodiac and spends about 13 years in each sign, if you date people of a similar age, or even born in the same decade, they may have Neptune in only one or two of your houses and visa versa.

You may be perpetually confused about where your partner stands on any issue and you may believe they have no back bone. They may agree with you externally, but you always wonder what they are really thinking internally.

You should be careful about money matters with this partner as, on one hand they may come to you to borrow money and to discuss their financial problems, but they may also try and conceal financial problems or debt from you so you do not get angry with them.

There is an emotional connection and your partner seems to know what you are thinking - there is a powerful ESP and you are rather relaxed together and not judgmental of each other's desires.

You will be generous with your love, your support and your resources with this partner. Your partner may go through many ups and downs in terms of their career or self-esteem, probably both, while they are with you.

You need to take stock and not to get too caught up in your partner's problems. You also need to take a step back and make sure you understand what motivates them and what their intentions are.

Your partner can inspire you creatively and help you appreciate the more spiritual side of life.

Jason's Pluto In Jessica 12th House

As Pluto moves rather slowly through the zodiac and spends about 18-20 years in each sign, if you date people of a similar age, or even born in the same generation, they may have Pluto in only one or two of your houses and visa versa.

This combination has some delights and yet it is also one of great uncertainty. It can give rise to a love hate relationship as one moment it brings you total contentment and bliss and in a flash it can bring disappointment, a sense of betrayal and abandonment. There is a total lack of perspective and moderation in this match and it can be all or nothing. You may well expect too much and both of you may have misconceptions about where the other is at.

While you can be your partner's guru, you can also be their nemesis as you know their Achilles heel. There is a great deal of psychic connectivity and much of your communication happens intuitively.

You have to be wide awake in the relationship and clear communication is vital as so much happens on a sub conscious level and you could often be picking up the wrong signals. You must constantly take a step back and pause for thought before you act.

While there is an enormous potential for healing and greater self-awareness, there may also be open wounds and some pain on that journey. This offers a sense of completion and while this relationship may be transitional rather than permanent, it is probably part of your destiny.

Synastry Aspect Report

Sun Sextile Sun - ☉ * ☉

Opportunities

Orb - 7.49

You two have responded well to each other from the very start. Your individual natures are complementary, but not overly similar. Translation. You're able to appreciate one another's strengths, make up for one another's weaknesses and still maintain your own individuality that is so essential to a healthy soul, as well as a healthy relationship.

Sun Square Mars - ☉ ☐ ♂

Challenging

Orb - 2.1

This relationship between you two might be something of a challenge. The problem between you is one of mismatched temperaments. You started out disagreeing on many subjects, and the better you've gotten to know each other, the higher your lover's irritation, especially, has likely climbed. Instead of being calm and honest about the situation looking clearly at each other and admitting that this is a relationship that takes extra work you're both tempted to just jump into the fray.

Sun Square Mercury - ☉ ☐ ♀

Challenging

Orb - 6.32

You two likely find your communication to be challenging, your interactions tricky at best. You both came to the relationship with the best of intentions, but you probably find yourself irritating your lover or offending their sensibilities. Neither of you is directly at fault for the flare-ups that are almost unavoidable between you; the problem lies more in a very basic difference in natures or temperaments. You are highly attached to your own, individual character and your own view of the world.

Sun Sextile Saturn - ☉ * ♄

Opportunities

Orb - 4.28

Your partner naturally takes on the role of guide or mentor in this relationship being, perhaps, older or more financially stable, or having had more education or general life experience. This should be a comfortable dynamic for both of you. After all, you both have something to offer the other your lover can offer that life experience and knowledge that you lack, and you can offer them a sense of freshness and vitality that keeps the relationship new and exciting.

Moon Opposition Moon - ☾ ☾ ☾

Tension

Orb - 5.24

When the Moon in comparative charts are in opposition there is a tendency to mirror and polarize one another's emotional moods, thus triggering strong emotional response in each other. Difficulties can arise in this situation if your respective moods are out of harmony because you will both be in a bad mood at the same time. You must work especially hard to understand each other's moods and feeling. There is also likely to be a near mirror image between your backgrounds and family upbringing.

Moon Square Jupiter - ☾ ☐ ♃

Challenging

Orb - 6.85

This comparative combination indicates the possibility of an insincere or somewhat hypocritical relationship. There may be a pandering to each other's weaknesses and self-indulgent tendencies. As parents, you may be inclined to be overly protective to children or to each other. You may join in unwise financial endeavors or be extravagant in expenditures together.

Moon Sextile Saturn - ☾ * ♄

Opportunities

Orb - 0.35

This comparative combination is more helpful in business and professional relationships. You have a good sense of responsibility toward one another. The Saturn person may act as sort of a father figure. Not an indicator of romantic involvement of itself, this aspect works best in situations requiring thrift, resourcefulness, discipline and responsibility. It does suggest a sense of loyalty, respect, and durability marks the relationship.

Mars Sextile Mars - ♂ * ♂

Opportunities

Orb - 8.82

This influence is one of combining your energies for the greater good. You're right in tune with each other sexually, for starters. You work together toward your goals, whether they're related to your jobs, your personal lives or any other area.

Mars Sextile Venus - ♂ * ♀

Opportunities

Orb - 7.08

The attraction between you runs sweet and strong. Your natural ability to communicate with each other and to access each other's best selves only increases your appetite for each other. You support each other like friends, you desire each other like lovers and you work together like a real team.

Mars Square Pluto - ♂ ☐ ♇

Challenging

Orb - 4.16

There is a strong sexual pull between you, which can be quite compelling and it could make you think there's more between you that's worth holding on to than there really is. This aspect is a really difficult one for either of you to handle, as it brings up so much anger, resistance, rebellion and aggression between you. Even if you're ordinarily quite placid, you know you're provoked more than you would have ever thought possible in this relationship! Unless other aspects between you help create a feeling of understanding and commonality, you two just have a really hard time getting along together except when you're being physically intimate, of course, and even that could take on a dimension of control and aggression that you should try to avoid.

Mercury Square Mars - ♀ ☐ ♂

Challenging

Orb - 3.01

Getting along with each other is the tricky part of this relationship. You both try to express yourselves in the ways that you know how, but your ways are directly in conflict with your partner's. Small irritations can turn into bigger misunderstandings, and then that impulsive reaction mode clicks into place and then your partner, especially, forgets to be tactful and kind in their rush to get at you.

Mercury Square Mercury - ♀ ☐ ♀

Challenging

Orb - 1.21

You have a really hard time communicating with each other, and end up feeling very frustrated on a regular basis as a result. You find that you just have two different ways of looking at things, both because of your different backgrounds and upbringings, and simply because of the individuals that you are. You disagree on many subjects, but instead of being able to appreciate your differences, you both view them as a challenge or even a threat. Almost any subject that comes up serves as a basis for an argument, from the small things where to go for dinner, which movie to see to the bigger ones, like questions of politics, morality or spirituality.

Mercury Sextile Saturn - ♀ ✳ ♄

Opportunities

Orb - 0.83

When you two get together, you focus on serious matters. You're thorough in your thought processes together; if you have an issue to talk out, you do so with serious intentions to get past the obstacle and never let it happen again. This makes for a lot of pressure for a romance, but it's ideal for the long-term relationship, because it helps to ensure that you two always communicate well and carefully, and that you're considerate of each other whenever problems arise. You don't just help each other with problems in your relationship, either; your partner also helps you deal with outside issues in your own life, offering advice on anything from your career to your friendships to your relationships with your family.

Mercury Square Uranus - ♀ ☐ ♅

Challenging

Orb - 6.11

The ways in which each of you thinks can provoke irritation in the other. Your partner is more intellectually daring than you, more comfortable with abstract or unorthodox ideas, with taking leaps of faith and changing their mind as many times as is needed which could come across as annoying or even threatening to you. You prefer to take more standard paths toward solving problems and don't want to change your mind once a decision is made. But that more traditional point of view feels limiting to your partner.

Mercury Square Neptune - ♀ ☐ ♆

Challenging

Orb - 8.31

Though you two might have gotten along really well for a time, you realized after a while that there's some sort of disconnect in your communication. This could be a major pattern of willful dishonesty, but it's more likely to be as minor and intangible as them holding a part of themselves back due to insecurity or past experiences and then you followed suit, because you felt vulnerable and self-protective when you picked up on this strange vibe. Of course, when we're courting a lover and falling in love, it's perfectly natural to put our best face forward but doing so hides that whole other side of ourselves that comes out later, the side that isn't so kind and smart and well-thought-out. And if we've been in troubled relationships in the past, in which we learned to keep parts of ourselves secret as a method of self-protection, it's hard to relearn to live and love openly.
